Dear Dr. _____,

The Breast Cancer Resource Center hosts an annual event called Art Bra Austin in which women in different stages of breast cancer participate as runway and floor models during the event. The models are required to be at the event for up to 7 hours, and will be on their feet and/or walking throughout the crowd much of the time. Accordingly, participation in the event requires a certain amount of stamina from the models.

To be completed by Medical Provider:

Your patient has agreed to participate as a Runway Floor model (can select either or both) in this year's Art Bra Austin fundraising event. Runway and Floor Models will participate in the event to be held on Saturday, June 8, 2019.

Are there any restrictions that you would recommend for your patient? Yes No
